BASIC TRUTH

I can trust God no matter what

FOR LEADERS ONLY

GOD VIEW: the connection between JOY and God's character, as shown through God's big story

This WEEK: In Luke 2:1-7, we read Luke's account of Jesus' birth. Jesus was God's Son, yet God chose to have him born in a place where they kept the animals. It was dirty and smelly, but that didn't matter. Mary and Joseph were thrilled because they had a Son, Jesus. And Jesus was the fulfillment of God's promise to rescue the world.

Bottom Line: I can choose joy because God sent God's Son. Christmas lights and presents are fun and can bring joy during the Christmas season. But none of that compares to the joy we experience when we believe that Jesus is God's Son.

SOCIAL: PROVIDING TIME FOR FUN INTERACTION

Welcome kids and spend time engaging in conversation and catching up. Get ready to experience today's story.

Before kids arrive, PRAY for each regular attendee by name. Pray for those who might visit your group for the first time. Pray that your kids would not just hear the story of God sending Jesus, but that they would understand the depth and importance of God's Son being given to us. Ask God that each kid would lean into the childlike joy God has placed in each of them and that they would be full of life as everyone encounters them this week because of the great news they heard today!

•• EARLY ARRIVER IDEA

What You Need: No supplies needed

What You Do:

- Ask your group the following questions:
 - What is the best gift you have ever received?
 - How did that gift help you?

•• BALANCING BOWS

What You Need: Stick-on bow

What You Do:

- Hand the bow to a group member.
- Instruct him to balance a bow on his head and walk around the small group table back to his original spot.
- If the bow falls, the player must return to his seat and try again.
- When he successfully makes it around the table, he should pass the bow to the person to his right.
- Continue play, with kids balancing the bows on their heads and passing them off until everyone has had a turn.

- If time allows, play again but change up how they travel. Have them walk on their knees, walk backward, take baby steps, etc.

What You Say: “Great job! That was fun EXCEPT when you dropped the bow. Were you happy when you dropped it and had to start over? No way! [Transition] Today in Large Group Worship/WOW Family Worship we’ll hear/we heard about the best reason to have joy, even when things might not go as planned.”

[Sunday Leaders: Lead your group to the Family Room for Large Group Worship. Wednesday Leaders: Continue with the study.]

GROUPS: CREATING A SAFE PLACE TO CONNECT

Create a safe place to connect and learn how the Bible story applies to real life experiences, through interactive activities and discussion questions.

●● BEST GIFT EVER! (application activity/review the Bible story)

What You Need: Spark Story Bible, “Best Gift Ever” activity cards

What You Do:

- Read “Jesus Is Born” from the Spark Story Bible (p. 212-217).
- When you finish reading the story, talk about how sometimes we get gifts that we’re not super excited about. Give some examples to help them understand, i.e. a tube of toothpaste without a toothbrush; a pair of socks with holes in them; a pair of gloves that don’t match, etc.
- Then hand each kid a “Best Gift Ever” figure. Let kids show each other their different manger scene pieces.
- Talk to your group about how together, these pieces form the scene where Jesus was born.
- Guide them to work together to create a manger scene using their gifts.

What You Say: “FINALLY! A gift that actually does us some good. I think this gift deserves a celebration. On the count of three, let’s jump up in the air and yell, ‘Jesus brings me joy!’ One, two, three! (‘Jesus brings me joy!’) Wow! You guys can jump really high. I’m so thankful that God sent God’s Son so we can all have joy. [Make It Personal] (Tell the kids about a time when Jesus brought you lots of joy.) [Bottom Line] I can choose joy because God sent God’s Son.”

●● JOY DELIVERY SERVICE (application activity)

What You Need: Envelopes, “I Can Have Joy” activity page, crayons, paper bag

What You Do:

- Give each kid one envelope and one “I Can Have Joy” activity page.
- Help them fold their paper and put it in their envelope. Help them to write “JOY” on the front of their envelope. Allow them to decorate their envelope with crayons.
- After kids are finished, instruct them to form a line.
- Choose one helper to hold the mailbag, and place him about 15 feet away from the group.
- When you say, “Go!” kids will run, one at a time, to the mailbag and put their envelopes in the bag.
- Kids should go to the back of the line and sit down once they’ve put their mail in the bag.
- If you have time, redistribute the envelopes and play again. See if the group can go faster.
- When you are done, give the kids their envelope back and encourage them to take it home to share with their friends and family.

What You Say: “Have you ever gotten mail before? Me too! I’ve gotten some really cool things in the mail, but the best thing that was ever sent to me was definitely Jesus. No matter what life sends my way, [Bottom Line] I can choose joy because God sent God’s Son.”

●● YOU’VE GOT MAIL (memory verse activity)

What You Need: Envelope with memory verse inside of it, crayons

What You Do:

- Open the envelope with your group.
- Read the memory verse aloud.
- Next, say it with your group repeating after you: “Rejoice in the Lord always (Rejoice in the Lord always.) I will say it again: Rejoice! (I will say it again: Rejoice!)” Philippians 4:4 (Philippians 4:4).
- Once you’ve said the verse a few times, have some fun saying it different ways, i.e. with your eyes closed, while hopping up and down, spinning in a circle, in a whisper voice. Finally, see if anyone can say it from memory.

What You Say: “What a fun day we’ve had, thinking about being filled with joy! It kind of reminded me of Christmas morning! What a great reminder for us as we celebrate with family, maybe when we open gifts, to remember that we’ve already been given the best gift ever. We may get excited about a cool toy or a new jacket, but [Bottom Line] I can choose joy because God sent God’s Son.”

PRAY AND SEND

What You Need: No supplies needed

What You Do:

- Give the kids a couple minutes to share about the best gift they’ve ever gotten. Let each kid describe his most favorite present or something he hopes to receive this year.
- Then ask if anyone can guess what the actual best gift ever is. (Jesus!)
- Pray a prayer of thanks to God for sending God’s Son—the best gift ever!

What You Say: “Dear God, you are so good to us! Thank you for taking care of us, providing for us, and for giving us the thing you knew we needed most—your Son. We want to take this time to just sing praises of thankfulness for the best gift ever. Help me to always be thankful and remind me that [Bottom Line] I can choose joy because God sent God’s Son.”

[Apply] Give each parent a Faith Five Family Tools as they come to pick up their child and remind them to use it as a family devotional tool this week.

Let them know we talked about how we can be joyful because God already sent us the best gift ever!
