

SYMBIS, the acronym for Saving Your Marriage Before It Starts, is a comprehensive pre-marriage and relationship enrichment resource designed specifically to help couples develop what they need for a robust marriage.

First published in 1995 and continually revised and updated, SYMBIS has become the gold standard in marriage preparation in the 21st century. Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott's award-winning approach incorporates thirty years of feedback, research, and professional experience.

"The SYMBIS Assessment took our relationship to a whole new level. Every engaged couple should do this. It's a blast!"

- Avery & Brooklyn

Pastor Paul Gauche is a trained and experienced SYMBIS Assessment Facilitator. He has guided many couples through this engaging and interactive experience. Couples have remarked, "Pastor Paul asked us dozens of important questions and helped us explore many issues that we would never have thought to explore on our own." By participating in the SYMBIS Assessment with Pastor Paul, you are taking an important step together by investing more deeply in your relationship.

"The SYMBIS Assessment provided insights into how our personalities mesh and our pre-marital counselor gave us useful tools and advice to coincide with the assessment. We're better off as individuals and as a couple after going through the SYMBIS program."

- Taylor & Alex

The SYMBIS Assessment consists of up to seven 90-minute engaging conversations during which you will have the opportunity to walk more intentionally into your relationship. As a result, you will discover new ways of thriving in your marriage.

The SYMBIS Assessment, the subsequent conversations with Pastor Paul, and meetings with a wedding coordinator from Prince of Peace provide the 12 hours needed for the $75.00 marriage license discount. The cost for the online SYMBIS Assessment is $35.00. The cost for the sessions with Pastor Paul is $300.
