Planting Hope:

Three Questions, Three Answers

John 10:1-10

Day One | Read Luke 5:1-11

<sup>1</sup> One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God. <sup>2</sup> He noticed two empty boats at the water's edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup> Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon, its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there. <sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish." <sup>5</sup> "Master," Simon replied, "we worked hard all last night and didn't catch a thing. But if you say so, I'll let the nets down again." <sup>6</sup> And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! <sup>7</sup> A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking. <sup>8</sup> When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, "Oh, Lord, please leave me—I'm such a sinful man." <sup>9</sup> For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him. <sup>10</sup> His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed. Jesus replied to Simon, "Don't be afraid! From now on you'll be fishing for people!" <sup>11</sup> And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.

- Simon Peter was a regular person that God used to do great things. How have you felt God calling you into ministry throughout your life? Do you feel a pull to participate in any of the partner ministries of Prince of Peace?

Day Two | Read John 10:10

<sup>10</sup> "The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life."

- Who are the thieves in your story that draw you away from following Jesus? What do you hear them saying that slows you down from following in mission?

Day Three | Read John 1:43-50 then John 1:12-13

John 1:43-50

<sup>43</sup> The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Come, follow me." <sup>44</sup> Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter's hometown. <sup>45</sup> Philip went to look for Nathanael and told him, "We have found the very person Moses and the prophets wrote about! His name is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth." <sup>46</sup> "Nazareth!" exclaimed Nathanael. "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" "Come and see for yourself," Philip replied. <sup>47</sup> As they approached, Jesus said, "Now here is a genuine son of Israel—a man of complete integrity." <sup>48</sup> "How do you know about me?" Nathanael asked. Jesus replied, "I could see you under the fig tree before Philip found you." <sup>49</sup> Then Nathanael exclaimed, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God—the King of Israel!" <sup>50</sup> Jesus asked him, "Do you believe this just because I told you I had seen you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this."

John 1:12-13

<sup>12</sup> But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. <sup>13</sup> They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

- How have you been attacked at the level of your identity by the voice of doubt? How does the good news that you are a child of the living God change your perspective?

Day Four | Matthew 14:13-21 then Matthew 17:20

Matthew 14:13-21

<sup>13</sup> As soon as Jesus heard the news, he left in a boat to a remote area to be alone. But the crowds heard where he was headed and followed on foot from many towns. <sup>14</sup> Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick. <sup>15</sup> That evening the disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.” <sup>16</sup> But Jesus said, “That isn’t necessary—you feed them.” <sup>17</sup> “But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish!” they answered. <sup>18</sup> “Bring them here,” he said. <sup>19</sup> Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he gave the bread to the disciples, who distributed it to the people. <sup>20</sup> They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers. <sup>21</sup> About 5,000 men were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children!

Matthew 17:20

<sup>20</sup> “You don’t have enough faith,” Jesus told them. “I tell you the truth, if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it would move. Nothing would be impossible.”

- What are some examples of how the voice of doubt has tried to “how” your calling to death? Does the power of mustard seed-sized faith give you hope as you think about your calling?

Day Five | Matthew 16:21-23 then John 16:33

Matthew 16:21-23

<sup>21</sup> From then on Jesus began to tell his disciples plainly that it was necessary for him to go to Jerusalem, and that he would suffer many terrible things at the hands of the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be raised from the dead. <sup>22</sup> But Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things. “Heaven forbid, Lord,” he said. “This will never happen to you!” <sup>23</sup> Jesus turned to Peter and said, “Get away from me, Satan! You are a dangerous trap to me. You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

John 16:33

<sup>33</sup> “I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

- We are often afraid to try because of the chance we will fail. What does it mean that on this side of the resurrection Jesus promises that we will do “even greater things”?
