

DAILY READING PLAN

Your Hospitality Matters

Week of September 22, 2019

Day 1 – Read Deuteronomy 10:12-22

“So now Israel, what do you think GOD expects from you? Just this: Live in his presence in holy reverence, follow the road he sets out for you, love him, serve GOD, your God, with everything you have in you, obey the commandments and regulations of GOD that I’m commanding you today—live a good life.” When you think about hospitality, what comes to mind? Who modeled hospitality well for you? What does it mean to live in God’s presence with holy reverence?

Day 2 – Read Deuteronomy 10:17-18

“GOD, your God, is the God of all gods, he’s the Master of all masters, a God immense and powerful and awesome. He doesn’t play favorites, takes no bribes, makes sure orphans and widows are treated fairly, takes loving care of foreigners by seeing that they get food and clothing.” Who are the “orphans, widows, and foreigners” in our world today? How do you understand your responsibility to care for them? Are there any limits or restrictions or not?

Day 3 – Read Deuteronomy 10:19

“You must treat foreigners with the same loving care—remember, you were once foreigners in Egypt.” Consider this: We are called to show hospitality because we’ve been shown hospitality. How do you respond to that?

Day 4 – Read Deuteronomy 10:20-21

“Reverently respect GOD, your God, serve him, hold tight to him, back up your promises with the authority of his name. He’s your praise! He’s your God! He did all these tremendous, these staggering things that you saw with your own eyes.” What’s your sweet spot of service? How do you really love to serve? If it’s true that everyone has something they can offer, what would that be for you?

Day 5 – Read Deuteronomy 10:22

“When your ancestors entered Egypt, they numbered a mere seventy souls. And now look at you—you look more like the stars in the night skies in number. And your GOD did it.” Our God is awesome and mighty; God’s done great things for us. How can your expressions of hospitality flow out of your gratitude for all God has done for you?
