SCRIPTURE
A woman healed,
a girl raised
Mark 5:21-34
[Mark 5:35-43]

NUGGET

Because we all matter to Jesus, we can approach him “as we are.” He will meet us there and work with what we have to offer.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Read Mark 5:21-34

- How does this story from scripture illustrate that Jesus accepts as “as we are”?
- Can you think of other biblical examples where Jesus includes outsiders?
- As followers of Jesus, what are some practical ways we can love others “as they are”? Share a story about a time you did this well. Share a story about a time you missed an opportunity to do this.

In his message, Topher encouraged us to “let down our masks.”

- What masks do you wear? Do your masks look different in different situations?
- Is “be yourself” an unrealistic expectation? On a scale of 1-10, how well do you know yourself? Is it hard to know yourself when you keep growing and changing?
- Who do you think knows the “real you” best? How would they describe you? Do you agree with that description? How might someone who doesn’t know you well describe you? What are they missing? What are some adjectives you would use to describe yourself?

Read the lyrics to “The Outsiders” (see activity page)

- What does this song mean to you? Which phrases resonate most with you?
- How can Prince of Peace (especially StuMin and your small group) do better at accepting and loving people as they are? Do you feel accepted and loved here? Why or why not?
