HIGH WIRE: Daring to Trust

TRUST | Putting your confidence in someone you can depend on

Throughout history, God has been faithful to us. When we remember that God will continue to be dependable, we can choose to trust God no matter what we face in life. The Bible shows examples of people who knew first-hand what it meant to trust God in many circumstances. This month, we focus on three of them who happen to be part of the same family: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Through their stories, we'll discover how we can trust God no matter what.

MORNING TIME

As often as possible as your kid starts their day, let them know about some area of their life where you appreciate their trustworthiness.

MEAL TIME

At meal times throughout the month, ask everyone at the table: "What is something really good that you believe about God? How does that help you trust God with what's happening in your life today?"

DRIVE TIME

While on the go, ask your kid(s): "What are some things or who are some people in your life you can count on?"

BED TIME

Pray for each other: "God, no matter what comes our way, help us to trust that You will always love us and watch over us. Even when we're unsure of what is next, we trust that You know and You are in control. Amen."

THEIR TIME

Encourage your kid(s) to spend time each week this month working through their age-specific GodTime cards. You can choose to do these devotionals with your child(ren) or allow them to work independently. Either way, be sure to take the opportunity to talk with them about what they are learning about God and their faith.

SHARE your highs and lows

What was great about today? What was tough? Reflect on your day and share a high and low with one another.

READ a Bible verse or story

It's time to open God's word. Any story or verse will do. The monthly and weekly POP Kids verses are a great place to start.

TALK about how the Bible reading relates to your highs and lows

How does what you just read relate to where you are today in your highs and lows. What might God be trying to teach you through this particular Scripture on this particular day?

PRAY for everyone's highs and lows

Offer your hearts and minds in prayer. Simply talk to God. Thank God for His goodness, and ask for guidance as needed.

BLESS one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another's forehead as a reminder that you belong to God and to one another. Make eye and heart contact as you share words of blessing such as "You are a beloved child of God."
