2:00 Welcome - Sarah Helvick

Welcome to StuMin, my name is _____. This month we are working through a series called "Captives." At the heart of the series is that there are things that catch us up and keep us from experiencing the type of abundant life that God wants for us. That is why we are starting each week with Communion.

In Communion we come together as a community of freedom. It isn't that we are coming together to say that we always have everything together or that we don't get stuck sometimes, but rather to say that we don't have to stay stuck in captivity; whether that is to our phones, eating disorders as we'll hear tonight, or anything else.

So, tonight as you receive the bread and the wine, what i want you to hold in you heart, what i want you to remember is that in Christ we are a freedom people.

5:00 Prayers of the church (circles)- sarah helvick

This month we have focused on some specific ways that we are held captive. The truth is that there are so many things that bind us that we need to be freed from. Tonight we're going to give you a chance to pray with a group of your peers in prayer circles.

In just a moment you will find the people in your row, and then make your way to a place in the sanctuary. Once you get there, you will share with the person next to you what you feel is holding you captive. When everyone has done this, you'll go back around the circle and that person will pray for you.

When you finish that, you'll end with the Lord's Prayer.

0:30 Lords Prayer - Sarah helvick

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

1:30 Speaker Intro - Sarah Helvick

As I mentioned earlier, we are in the midst of a series called Captives. It is a series about the ways that we get stuck, but more so about the ways we can find life and a way out of being a captive to whatever it is that binds us.

Tonight we're going to hear from Jessica Bartholomew. Jessica With 20 years of experience working with children, teens, and families in youth outreach, domestic and foreign missions, and as a police officer, Jessica brings first-hand information and experience to the issue of juvenile sex trafficking. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Child Development with a minor study in Law, Criminology, and Deviance from the U of M Twin Cities (1996) and a Certificate in Law Enforcement from NCC, Bloomington, MN (2002). Jessica served 12 years in law enforcement as a patrol officer and as an undercover officer in human trafficking and narcotics investigations. Currently, she is the lead facilitator of A.C.T. United, a juvenile sex trafficking awareness, and outreach ministry, of Church on the Hill, Chaska, MN

Would you please help me welcome Jessica to the stage:

40:00 Message - Jessica Bartholomew2:00 benediction - Jason

When Jesus started this ministry that we now participate in as part of Jesus' church, he said, "The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free."

With God we have the power to set people free. People who are caught in prisons of their own making and people caught in modern slavery. Together we are as powerful a force as the world has ever seen. The question is whether we will believe it.

So, tonight as you go, remember who you are. you are freedom bringers sent to set the captives free. Go in peace and serve the Lord
