SERIES
OVERVIEW

CONNECTED: Switch on the Power of Peace

Peace | Proving you care more about each other than winning an argument

Throughout Scripture, we can see how peace is something near to God's heart. Even though people chose to break their relationship with God, God made a way to fix that relationship through Jesus. And because we reflect God's image, making peace with others should be a priority for us as well. That's why we're taking the month of March to highlight some Bible passages and stories about peace that can help us grow as peacemakers in our everyday lives.

MORNING TIME

As your kid starts their day, tell them about a way they make things peaceful (their attitude, their words, their hospitality, etc.). Thank them for being a peacemaker.

MEAL TIME

At meal times this month, have everyone at the table do this: “Share about a time when you had to make peace with someone. Was it hard? How did you feel afterward?”

DRIVE TIME

While on the go, ask “Have you seen anyone help to make peace lately in a tricky situation? What did they do?” (If they haven’t seen that, then ask if they saw someone who didn’t make peace lately. Brainstorm together what they could have done differently to help make peace.)

BED TIME

Pray for each other: “Dear God, help us to make peace whenever we can. When we’re not sure what to do, show us what we should do ... and give us the courage to do it. Thank You for sending Jesus to be a peacemaker and our Savior. Amen.”

---

THEIR TIME

Encourage your kid(s) to spend time each week this month working through their age-specific GodTime cards. You can choose to do these devotionals with your child(ren) or allow them to work independently. Either way, be sure to take the opportunity to talk with them about what they are learning about God and their faith.

FAITH5 | Faith Inkubators

SHARE your highs and lows

What was great about today? What was tough? Reflect on your day and share a high and low with one another.

READ a Bible verse or story

It’s time to open God’s word. Any story or verse will do. The monthly and weekly POP Kids verses are a great place to start.

TALK about how the Bible reading relates to your highs and lows

How does what you just read relate to where you are today in your highs and lows. What might God be trying to teach you through this particular Scripture on this particular day?

PRAY for everyone’s highs and lows

Offer your hearts and minds in prayer. Simply talk to God. Thank God for His goodness, and ask for guidance as needed.

BLESS one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another’s forehead as a reminder that you belong to God and to one another. Make eye and heart contact as you share words of blessing such as “You are a beloved child of God.”
