ON MY BLOCK: CARE FOR THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

COMPASSION | Caring enough to do something about someone else's need

As we learn more about compassion, we see that it's at the very heart of God and how God wants us to respond to the world around us. We reflect God's compassion when we care about others. We pray that we will find a purpose bigger than ourselves and become the sorts of people ready to throw block parties and show compassion for those who need to know how much God loves them.

SPRING BREAK | NO POP KIDS

Daily Rhythm Resources | theparentcue.org

MORNING TIME

Start your kid's day off by showing them extra care—a special breakfast, a treat in their lunchbox, an encouraging note in their backpack, etc.

MEAL TIME

At a meal this month, ask everyone: "Who is someone that you see every day that needs some help or a friend?" Have everyone at the table answer. Brainstorm ways that you could help and/or be a friend. Throughout the month, check in with one another and celebrate everything you do to show compassion to the people you identified.

DRIVE TIME

While in the car, ask your passengers: "What's something nice you've seen someone do or say lately?"

Another time, say "Tell me about a time someone made you feel special by spending time with you. Who was it and what did you do together?"

BED TIME

Pray for each other: "God, help us to see and hear the needs of those around us. If there is something we can do to help, help us be willing and able to do it."

THEIR TIME

Encourage your kid(s) to spend time each week during this series working through their age-specific GodTime cards. You can choose to do these devotionals with your child(ren) or allow them to work independently. Either way, be sure to take the opportunity to talk with them about what they are learning about God and their faith.

SHARE your highs and lows

What was great about today? What was tough? Reflect on your day and share a high and low with one another.

READ a Bible verse or story

It's time to open God's word. Any story or verse will do. The monthly and weekly POP Kids verses are a great place to start.

TALK about how the Bible reading relates to your highs and lows

How does what you just read relate to where you are today in your highs and lows. What might God be trying to teach you through this particular Scripture on this particular day?

PRAY for everyone's highs and lows

Offer your hearts and minds in prayer. Simply talk to God. Thank God for His goodness and ask for guidance as needed.

BLESS one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another's forehead as a reminder that you belong to God and to one another. Make eye and heart contact as you share words of blessing such as "You are a beloved child of God."
