

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE

God is doing good in the world all around us every day, and God invites us to help—to be part of spreading that goodness! God loves us completely whether we do any of this stuff or not, but taking God up on the invitation can mean our lives matter in both big and little ways to other people.

Challenge yourself to join in on God's work! Cut along the dotted lines below. For each day this week, tear off one of the challenges and complete it. By the end of the week, you'll have completed seven things that make the world a better place. Don't stop there! Keep being part of God's work in the weeks, months, and years to come!

- I'll use a respectful tone when talking to my parent(s).
- I'll treat my siblings or younger kids in my family with kindness.
- I'll give my best in band/sports practice.
- I'll invite someone new to my small group.
- I'll introduce myself to someone I don't know at school.
- I'll sit next to someone new on the bus and ask them about themselves.
- I'll make dinner for my family without anyone asking.
- I'll thank my teacher for everything they do for our class.
- I'll give an encouraging note to someone who needs it.
- I'll pray for someone in my life.
- I'll use my unique talent/skill to bring a smile to someone's face.
- I'll send a letter to someone in a nursing home or a person who is serving overseas in the military.
- I'll give my time to a cause that means something to me.
- I'll pick up litter I see in my neighborhood or street.
- I'll tell someone important to me that I love and appreciate them.
- I'll help clean up after youth group or small group.
- I'll speak up when someone is being picked on or gossiped about.
