

October 9
2019

SCRIPTURE

Love the Lord
Your God

Deuteronomy 5:1-21
Deuteronomy 6:4-9

NUGGET

Our God is a relational God. The Ten Commandments provides us with God's framework for how to live in healthy and loving relationship with God and with one another.

NOTES

October 9
2019

SCRIPTURE

Love the Lord
Your God

Deuteronomy 5:1-21
Deuteronomy 6:4-9

NUGGET

Our God is a relational God. The Ten Commandments provides us with God's framework for how to live in healthy and loving relationship with God and with one another.

NOTES

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Deuteronomy 5:1-21 outlines “The Ten Commandments.”

- What words and emotions does this phrase immediately bring to mind for you?
- What are some rules that you have to follow in the families/relationships/clubs/teams that you are involved in?
- How does your relationship with the rule-maker impact how you feel about the rules? How does your level of desire to belong to the group impact how you feel about the rules?

“After freeing the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and bringing them to the Promised Land, God says ‘This is a new community. A new start. A new covenant. Love God. Love others. Simple.’”

- Describe a relationship/team you are involved in where it is simple to get along well. What factors make it easy?
- What are some real-life factors that make it difficult to love God and love others well?
- Review and/or create a “small group covenant” for your StuMin small group. Start by defining the purpose of your group. Then, list the guidelines necessary to achieve your purpose. Keep it as simple as possible. Commit to one another to honor this covenant.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 stresses the importance of keeping God’s commandments close in mind and heart.

- Prince of Peace Children’s Ministry hosts “Keeping the Promise” events yearly as a way to honor the commitments that parents make to God in baptism. The 2nd grade “KTP” focuses on The Ten Commandments. Use the booklet provided to review/discuss the individual commandments in more detail.

PRAYER REQUESTS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Deuteronomy 5:1-21 outlines “The Ten Commandments.”

- What words and emotions does this phrase immediately bring to mind for you?
- What are some rules that you have to follow in the families/relationships/clubs/teams that you are involved in?
- How does your relationship with the rule-maker impact how you feel about the rules? How does your level of desire to belong to the group impact how you feel about the rules?

“After freeing the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and bringing them to the Promised Land, God says ‘This is a new community. A new start. A new covenant. Love God. Love others. Simple.’”

- Describe a relationship/team you are involved in where it is simple to get along well. What factors make it easy?
- What are some real-life factors that make it difficult to love God and love others well?
- Review and/or create a “small group covenant” for your StuMin small group. Start by defining the purpose of your group. Then, list the guidelines necessary to achieve your purpose. Keep it as simple as possible. Commit to one another to honor this covenant.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 stresses the importance of keeping God’s commandments close in mind and heart.

- Prince of Peace Children’s Ministry hosts “Keeping the Promise” events yearly as a way to honor the commitments that parents make to God in baptism. The 2nd grade “KTP” focuses on The Ten Commandments. Use the booklet provided to review/discuss the individual commandments in more detail.

PRAYER REQUESTS
