

OCTOBER
2020

STUDENT MINISTRY

SERIES OVERVIEW

PARENT
CUE CARD

Theme

FAMILY MATTERS:

A SERIES ABOUT FAMILY

Sometimes family can be a little messy. And when it comes to living out our faith in our family, it can be even messier. That's why in this series, we're talking about how when it comes to your faith and your family, love matters most. No matter how challenging family life can be—and let's be honest—it isn't always easy—it's important to remember that how we love others in the midst of mess matters most.

We'll also explore how to apply Biblical wisdom to anything and everything that students may be experiencing within their families. Ultimately, we want to point students to these important truths: God is with you. God loves you. God is unchanging. God is faithful. And God will give you the strength you need to love your family well.

Week One - October 7

John 13:34-35; 1 Corinthians 13:4-7
When it comes to your faith and your family, love matters most.

Week Two - October 14

Genesis 25:27-34, Genesis 27:1-38, Hebrews 11:20
Your family matters even when it's fractured.

Week Three - October 21

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, Isaiah 43:2, Isaiah 41:10
When your family changes, God's promises matter.

Week Four - October 28

1 Samuel 18:3, Hebrews 10:24-25
Belonging to the family of God matters.

REMEMBER THIS

"By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
John 13:35 NIV

OCTOBER
2020

STUDENT MINISTRY

SERIES OVERVIEW

PARENT
CUE CARD

Theme

FAMILY MATTERS:

A SERIES ABOUT FAMILY

Sometimes family can be a little messy. And when it comes to living out our faith in our family, it can be even messier. That's why in this series, we're talking about how when it comes to your faith and your family, love matters most. No matter how challenging family life can be—and let's be honest—it isn't always easy—it's important to remember that how we love others in the midst of mess matters most.

We'll also explore how to apply Biblical wisdom to anything and everything that students may be experiencing within their families. Ultimately, we want to point students to these important truths: God is with you. God loves you. God is unchanging. God is faithful. And God will give you the strength you need to love your family well.

Week One - October 7

John 13:34-35; 1 Corinthians 13:4-7
When it comes to your faith and your family, love matters most.

Week Two - October 14

Genesis 25:27-34, Genesis 27:1-38, Hebrews 11:20
Your family matters even when it's fractured.

Week Three - October 21

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, Isaiah 43:2, Isaiah 41:10
When your family changes, God's promises matter.

Week Four - October 28

1 Samuel 18:3, Hebrews 10:24-25
Belonging to the family of God matters.

REMEMBER THIS

"By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
John 13:35 NIV

MORNING TIME

Find a picture of your family (it can be older or recent) that captures a joyous family occasion. Write a short note on the back of the picture sharing why this picture is special to you. Use the space to speak positively about the family and your student's role in it. Share the picture with your student by putting it where they will see it in the morning, either near their shoes, on top of their backpack, or on the bathroom mirror.

THEIR TIME

Find ways to stay connected with your family this week. Encourage each member of your family to connect with one another one-on-one. Whether it's sharing a favorite dessert, playing a game, or simply going for a walk, help your family members intentionally connect with each other.

MEAL TIME

Ask your student: "Who outside of our family feels like family to you?" Whether it's friends, teammates, neighbors, coaches, Small Group Leaders, or other adults, listen closely to how they answer this question. Then, if you know the people they list, talk at dinner about what you love about these bonus family members. If you don't know them, make an effort to get to know them!

BED TIME

Is there a change happening in your home or family right now? Big or small, good or bad, change may be difficult for your student to process. One evening this week, as your family is winding down for the day, take time to talk with them about the changes you may be experiencing as a family. Give them a chance to share how they are feeling about it.

MORNING TIME

Find a picture of your family (it can be older or recent) that captures a joyous family occasion. Write a short note on the back of the picture sharing why this picture is special to you. Use the space to speak positively about the family and your student's role in it. Share the picture with your student by putting it where they will see it in the morning, either near their shoes, on top of their backpack, or on the bathroom mirror.

THEIR TIME

Find ways to stay connected with your family this week. Encourage each member of your family to connect with one another one-on-one. Whether it's sharing a favorite dessert, playing a game, or simply going for a walk, help your family members intentionally connect with each other.

MEAL TIME

Ask your student: "Who outside of our family feels like family to you?" Whether it's friends, teammates, neighbors, coaches, Small Group Leaders, or other adults, listen closely to how they answer this question. Then, if you know the people they list, talk at dinner about what you love about these bonus family members. If you don't know them, make an effort to get to know them!

BED TIME

Is there a change happening in your home or family right now? Big or small, good or bad, change may be difficult for your student to process. One evening this week, as your family is winding down for the day, take time to talk with them about the changes you may be experiencing as a family. Give them a chance to share how they are feeling about it.