Bottom Line

Be a brave follower of God.

See It

When you see a ring, remember how Esther and Mordecai bravely followed God and saved God's people.

Hear It

Listen for people celebrating this week. Create a cheer to use when you feel like celebrating.

Talk About It

1. Share a story about a fun experience you have had with a cousin or other relative outside of your immediate family.
2. Has anybody ever tried to get you to do something that you knew was wrong? What did you do?
3. Who is the bravest person you know? What brave things do they do? What is the bravest thing you have ever done?
4. What is something you can do to be a brave follower of God?

Live It

For families to do together: Think of a reason your family has to celebrate. Then prepare a "banquet" of your favorite foods and celebrate with music, feasting, dancing, and cheering.

For preschool kids: When you see something happening that is not right, stand up and say so!

Pray It

Thank you, God, for brave heroes like Esther. Help us be brave enough to stand up and speak out whenever we see people being treated unfairly. AMEN.
