Speak

Scripture tells us that “In the beginning was the word ...”

In John 1:1, God speaks creation into existence:

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

In Genesis 1:3, God speaks freedom to the enslaved:

Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.

In Exodus 2:24-25, God speaks hope, love, and accountability to a new nation of people:

God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God looked upon the Israelites, and God took notice of them.

In Exodus 6:7, God speaks truth to power, reorienting history. Redeeming. Restoring. Speaking resurrection and new life:

I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You shall know that I am the Lord your God, who has freed you from the burdens of the Egyptians.

God has not stopped speaking to us – in our time, in our reality – using the ancient words of the prophets, the seers, the unexpected, and even the forgotten, to guide us. We call out for God to speak: to speak to us, to speak through us, to speak for us, and to speak us into new life.

How do you hear God speaking to you? How does God speak new life in you?
What does God’s justice mean to you? How do you speak justice in your life?
