THANKSGIVING AND THE SURPRISE OF JOY

We are never more thankful than those moments when a deep need has just been met. After walking through disorienting times of despair, fear or anger, we reflect on the faithfulness of God.

Are you longing for the light of morning? What is making you feel sadness or despair?

Through which lens do you view the world? Is your world view framed by sorrow or joy, despair or hope? How does your faith shape the way you see?

Do you think it's possible to find glimpses of beauty or hope in your worst moments? Can you remember a time when that happened for you?

What do you think of the idea that sin simply means living as if God's love is not for us? What would change in your life if you truly believed that you are loved beyond measure, no matter what? Does that feel counter-cultural?

Have you ever been surprised by joy – unexpected bursts of light in the middle of days that feel dark or heavy? What was that like?

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
forever and ever.
Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
